COMPLEX LITIGATION

ABOUT KELLER ROHRBACK

Devoted to Justice

"[Keller Rohrback] has performed an important public service in this action and has done so efficiently and with integrity...[Keller Rohrback] has also worked creatively and diligently to obtain a settlement from WorldCom in the context of complex and difficult legal questions..."
In re WorldCom, Inc. ERISA Litigation (Judge Cote)

Keller Rohrback's lawyers excel by being prepared and persuasive. It's a simple formula that combines our strengths: outstanding writing and courtroom skill, together with unparalleled passion and integrity. We have recovered billions of dollars for our clients and have served as lead counsel in many prominent cases, including numerous financial crisis cases against Wall Street banks and mortgage originators. Our lawyers are recognized as leaders in their fields who have dedicated their careers to combating corporate fraud and misconduct. We have the talent as well as the financial resources to litigate against Fortune 500 companies—and do so every day.

Who We Are

Keller Rohrback's Complex Litigation Group has a national reputation as the go-to plaintiffs' firm for large-scale, complex individual and class action cases. We represent public and private investors, businesses, governments and individuals in a wide range of actions, including securities fraud, fiduciary breach, antitrust, whistleblower, environmental and product liability cases. Our approach is straightforward—we represent clients who have been harmed by conduct that is wrong, and we litigate with passion and integrity to obtain the best results possible. Every case is different, but we win for the same reason: we are persuasive. When you hire us, you hire smart, creative lawyers who are skilled in court and in negotiations.

Founded in 1919, Keller Rohrback's over 70 attorneys and about 100 staff members are based in six offices across the country in Seattle, Oakland, Santa Barbara, Phoenix, New York, and Missoula. Over the past century, our firm has built a distinguished reputation by providing top-notch representation. We offer exceptional service and a comprehensive understanding of federal and state law nationwide. We also are well known for our abilities to collaborate with co-counsel and to work together to achieve outstanding results—essential skills in large-scale cases in which several firms represent the plaintiffs. We pride ourselves on our reputation for working smartly with opposing counsel, and we are comfortable and experienced in coordinating high-stakes cases with simultaneous state and federal government investigations. Keller Rohrback attorneys earn the respect of our colleagues and our opponents through our deft handling of the array of complex issues and obstacles our clients face.

ABOUT KELLER ROHRBACK

What We Do

Keller Rohrback's Complex Litigation Group represents plaintiffs in large-scale cases involving corporate wrongdoing. We litigate against companies that pollute, commit fraud, fix prices and take advantage of consumers, employees, and investors. We are passionate advocates for justice. In addition, the Complex Litigation Group regularly calls on attorneys in the firm's other practice areas for expertise in areas such as bankruptcy, constitutional law, corporate transactions, financial institutions, insurance coverage and intellectual property. Our group's access to these in-house resources distinguishes Keller Rohrback from other plaintiffs' class action firms and contributes to the firm's success. We also have a history of working with legal counsel from other countries to vigorously pursue legal remedies on behalf of clients around the globe.

We have won verdicts in state and federal courts throughout the nation and have obtained judgments and settlements on behalf of clients in excess of $23.25 billion. Courts around the country have praised our work, and we are regularly appointed lead counsel in nationally prominent class action cases. Our work has had far-reaching impacts for our clients in a variety of settings and industries, creating a better, more accountable society.

Who We Serve

We represent individuals, institutions, and government agencies. The common denominators of our clients is a desire to see justice done—and to be represented by attorneys who practice law with integrity, honesty, and devotion to serving our clients' interests.

"Despite substantial obstacles to recovery, Keller Rohrback was willing to undertake the significant risks presented by this case...Class Counsel achieved real and substantial benefits for members of the Class. [Their] extensive prior experience in complex class action securities litigation... enabled the Class to analyze and achieve this excellent result." Getty v. Harmon (SunAmerica Securities Litigation) (Judge Dwyer).

Lynn Lincoln Sarko is a master strategist and litigator who leads Keller Rohrback's nationally-recognized Complex Litigation Group. One of the nation's top attorneys in complex litigation, Lynn does not just help clients win—he helps them win what they want. Through smart, efficient strategy and tailored, creative problem solving, Lynn and his team accomplish the best outcomes while minimizing costs and maximizing value.

Lynn's diverse experience enables him to think outside the box to resolve complex cases. He regularly interacts with international business interests, representing sovereign nations and institutional clients seeking to recover investment losses caused by financial fraud and other malfeasance. He is currently involved in several matters involving complex derivatives and specialty investment products. He represents clients with regard to regulatory investigations and issues involving state and federal supervisory agencies and has litigated actions involving several of the nation's largest accounting and investment firms. Lynn is part of the team representing the City of Tacoma in its fight to hold opioid manufacturers accountable.

Lynn has led the firm's securities and retirement fund practice for over 25 years and regularly serves as lead counsel in multiparty individual and class action cases involving ERISA, antitrust, securities, breach of fiduciary duty and other investment fraud issues. Other law firms seek his assistance as settlement counsel in these and other complex cases because of his reputation as a skilled negotiator. His successes in this area include multimillion dollar settlements in the IKON, Anicom, United Companies Financial Corp., and the Enron, WorldCom, Global Crossing, Health South, Delphi, Washington Mutual, Countrywide, Lucent, Merrill Lynch, and the Xerox consolidated pension and retirement plan cases.

In addition, Lynn was appointed to the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee for In re Chrysler-Dodge-Jeep Ecodiesel Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation. Previously, Lynn served as one of the negotiators in the $15 billion Volkswagen Diesel Emissions Fraud class action settlement for 2.0-liter vehicles, the largest auto-related consumer class action settlement in U.S. history, as well as the 3.0-liter settlement.

Courts and professional organizations have honored Lynn for his work on financial, fiduciary duty, consumer and numerous other high-profile public cases. After serving as trial counsel in the Exxon Valdez Oil Spill case, which resulted in a $5 billion punitive damages verdict, Lynn was appointed by the court as Administrator for all funds recovered. He prosecuted the Microsoft civil antitrust case, Vitamin price-fixing cases, the MDL Fen/Phen Diet Drug Litigation, and notable public service lawsuits such as Erickson v. Bartell Drug Co., which established a woman's right to prescription contraceptive health coverage.

Before joining Keller Rohrback, Lynn was an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, Criminal Division, an associate at the Washington, D.C. office of Arnold & Porter, and law clerk to the Honorable Jerome Farris, United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, in Seattle. He has been the managing partner of Keller Rohrback since 1991.

Lynn appears in federal courts from coast to coast, maintaining an active

As a partner in Keller Rohrbach's nationally recognized Complex Litigation Group,

Cari Laufenberg maintains a national practice representing consumers, employees, and institutions in complex consumer and employee class actions involving corporate fraud, privacy and data breach issues, breach of fiduciary duty, and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"). Since joining Keller Rohrbach, she has played a key role in obtaining multi-million dollar recoveries for consumers, employees, and shareholders in many of the firm's largest and most complex cases, including cases involving Anthem Inc., Sony Pictures Entertainment Inc., Marsh McLennan Companies, Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., and HealthSouth Corporation.

Cari has been appointed to numerous leadership positions in federal courts across the country and serves as Co-Lead Counsel for over 2 million data breach victims in In Re: 21st Century Oncology Customer Data Security Breach Litigation in the Middle District of Florida. She also serves as an appointed member of several leadership committees including: In Re: Experian Data Breach Litigation in the Central District of California, In Re: VTech Data Breach Litigation, and In Re: 100% Grated Parmesan Cheese Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation, both in the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division.

Over the past 15 years, Cari's background in nonprofit management and public administration has served her clients well. She is adept at organizing large complex cases, working collaboratively with other counsel, and developing a cogent strategy which achieves short-term goals and long-term successes. Before joining Keller Rohrbach in 2003, Cari served as a judicial extern for Judge Barbara Jacobs Rothstein of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington. She is a frequent speaker at national conferences on class actions, identity theft and privacy, and other complex litigation topics.

Gretchen Freeman Cappio has a track record of success in multidistrict litigation.

Gretchen's passion for striving for meaningful change through the class action device is rooted in her experience representing the plaintiff class in Erickson v. Bartell Drug Co., 141 F. Supp. 2d 1266 (W.D. Wash. 2001). Remarkable for its time, Erickson established that an employer violated Title VII of the Civil Rights Act when its otherwise comprehensive insurance coverage plan failed to cover certain prescriptions vital to women.

Gretchen has gone on to play a key role on the leadership team representing consumers in the multi-billion dollar litigation In re Volkswagen "Clean Diesel" Marketing, Sales Practices, & Prod. Liab. Litig., MDL 2672 (N.D. Cal.). She has been involved in negotiations, drafted key settlement documents, and supervised notice in the 2.0-liter, 3.0-liter, and Bosch settlements. Gretchen presented the 3.0-liter notice plan at the preliminary approval hearing.

Gretchen is also a key member of the Plaintiffs' settlement team in another impactful diesel emissions MDL, In re Chrysler-Dodge-Jeep EcoDiesel Mktg., Sales Practices, & Prod. Liab. Litig., MDL 2777 (N.D. Cal.). Lead counsel asked her to coordinate key briefing assignments, expert work, and arguments.

Keller Rohrbach is honored to be the sole firm appointed to represent the class in Jabbari v. Wells Fargo & Company, No. 15-2159 (N.D. Cal.). Gretchen helps lead the Keller Rohrbach team that filed the first class action lawsuit against Wells Fargo alleging the bank signed its consumers up for products without their authorization. From filing the complaint to settling it for $142 million, Gretchen has played an integral role at every stage of litigation. Through innovative work with renowned economists, the settlement achieves first-of-its kind credit injury damages, which are tailored to each eligible class member's injury. Plaintiffs' motion for final approval is currently pending.

From its inception, Gretchen played a key role in guiding the litigation regarding EpiPen pricing, In re: EpiPen (Epinephrine Injection, USP) Mktg., Sales Practices, & Antitrust Litig., MDL 2785 (D. Kan.). Keller Rohrbach's managing partner, Lynn Sarko, is co-lead of the litigation. He and his co-lead counsel have tasked Gretchen with drafting dispositive briefing and coordinating offensive and defensive discovery.

When a paper products company vacated a Midwestern town and left an environmental disaster in its wake, Gretchen represented the community. The mayor praised Gretchen and her team's work, stating, "You were knowledgeable, responsive and genuinely cared about the Village's case." Gretchen applies these same attributes as a leading member of the Keller Rohrbach team that has subsequently been hired by numerous counties to represent them in the national Opioid litigation, In re: National Prescription Opiate Litig., MDL 2804 (N.D. Ohio). Keller Rohrbach's team is designing a damages model that seeks to address one of the most urgent human-made epidemics in our country's history.

When parents discovered their children's toys were contaminated by lead paint, they hired Gretchen to bring the case that became In re Mattel, Inc., MDL 1897 (C.D. Cal.). In addition to briefing core legal issues, Gretchen worked with lead poisoning experts for litigation and settlement purposes.

KELLER ROHRBACK

LAW OFFICES ♦ L. L. P.

Gretchen's work on dispositive briefing and arguments in the co-lead counsel team against a major national bank led to the settlement of In re JPMorgan Chase Mortg. Modification Litig., MDL 2290 (D. Mass.), resulting in improved home mortgage modification processes for homeowners. A former Treasury Department official estimated the value of the settlement to exceed $500 million.

Sony Pictures employees turned to Gretchen and her colleagues when their sensitive data was stolen as part of a massive cyberattack. Gretchen worked with data security experts to help fashion important injunctive and monetary relief. Corona v. Sony Pictures Entertainment, Inc., No. 14-9600 (C.D. Cal.).

With a reputation for effective collaboration and leadership, Gretchen takes on impactful litigation and delivers meaningful results.

Eric Fierro bridges the gap between technology and the law. Eric practices in Keller Rohrback's nationally recognized Complex Litigation Group and oversees the firm's legal technology group, providing electronic discovery and litigation support to colleagues and clients on a wide array of cases. Whether he is helping to preserve significant amounts of data for institutional clients or walking an individual through the data collection process to increase accuracy and maximize privacy, Eric works closely with clients to understand their needs and provide solutions.

Eric has over 15 years of experience with legal technology. While attending law school in the evening, Eric worked full-time for the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts where he provided technical support for all criminal and civil units, including the healthcare fraud, securities fraud, and other white collar crime units. Eric also worked as a summer law clerk for the computer crime and intellectual property unit at the U.S. Attorney's Office. Before joining Keller Rohrback, he was a managing consultant for Huron Consulting Group, providing consultative services for complex electronic discovery and document review matters.

When not at work, Eric enjoys spending time with his family, golfing, and rebuilding off-road vehicles in his garage.

Benjamin Gould makes the law work for his clients. Ben, a Seattle native, practices in Keller Rohrbach's nationally recognized Complex Litigation Group. His ability to clearly and efficiently communicate factual and legal issues to his clients and courts allows him to adeptly serve the interest of clients who have been harmed by others' misconduct.

Ben has extensive experience in appellate litigation and has active appeals pending in state and federal courts throughout the nation. He has secured successful results for his clients before the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Second, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits and numerous state appellate courts. Ben also maintains an active practice outside the appellate arena. He has represented clients in cases involving pensions, professional negligence, civil rights, and consumer-protection law, among other subjects.

Before joining the firm, Ben worked as a Legal Fellow of the ACLU Drug Law Reform Project, litigating cases related to drug policy and civil rights. He also served as a clerk to two federal appellate judges: the Honorable Betty Binns Fletcher of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the Honorable Diana E. Murphy of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit.

Workers' rights are personal to Rachel Morowitz, who joined Keller Rohrbach's Complex Litigation team in August 2017.

The Bay Area native's father was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis (MS) when she was 10 years old and her brother was diagnosed with brain cancer when she was in second grade. Her family didn't have to worry about access to health care, but her family's health issues made her more empathetic to families that do.

During law school, Rachel sought out opportunities that would make her a better advocate for workers and retirees. Before joining Keller Rohrbach, she completed a fellowship with the AARP where she specialized in employee benefits law and worked on amicus briefs submitted to the U.S. Supreme Court, Fifth Circuit and Ninth Circuit. For two years, she worked at the Communications Workers of America, a telecommunications union, where she focused on traditional labor law and labor-management relations. She also interned at the U.S. Department of Labor and U.S. Supreme Court.

Rachel is a "watchdog" for workers and consumers. She wants to ensure that employers are using best practices when it comes to retirement and health-care benefits.
